

West Side and City Surban

FOUR SOCIAL EVENTS.

Conducted in the Churches in This Part of the City.

An entertainment was given by the Summer Avenue Presbyterian church young people to the church congregation and friends last evening. It was well attended and the excellent programme of exercises well rendered, was thoroughly enjoyed by all. At the close of the entertainment refreshments were served by a corps of young ladies, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid. The exercises came to a close by singing the hymn "America," in which all joined. The vocal selections were accompanied by Mrs. John L. James upon the organ.

The young people of the German Presbyterian church gave an entertainment in the church on Chestnut street last evening. Following the exercises ice cream, strawberries and cake were served. The lawn was to have been used in seating the guests, but the inclement weather prevented and they were served in the church parlors.

A magic lantern exhibition was given at the Sherman Avenue Mission School last evening to a large and delighted audience of the young people and their parents. The exhibition was in charge of Mail Carrier John R. Thomas. After the exhibition light refreshments were served.

The ladies of the Simpson Methodist church whose names begin with the initial letters of the alphabet from A to E, inclusive, served a supper in the church parlors last evening. Despite the inclement weather occurring, a very large number were in attendance and a pleasant time enjoyed.

SERIES OF ACCIDENTS.

Thomas McGinty of Morris court, and shoulders on Wednesday by falling from a cherry tree. The boy fell about fourteen feet striking on his head and shoulders. Drs. Moylan and Carroll are in attendance and expect the injured boy to recover nicely.

William Williams was kicked on the hip by a mule on Wednesday evening as he was putting the mule in the barn at the Continental mines. The young man is about nineteen years old and resides with his parents on Hampton street.

Thomas Williams of Eynon street, suffered a bad strain of the back while lifting some coal into a car. Mr. Williams is under the care of Dr. J. J. Roberts.

A runaway horse knocked down and trampled upon Arthur, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hand of Rock street on Wednesday afternoon. The little fellow was bruised and suffering from a scalp wound inflicted by the horse's shoe. He is reported as being somewhat improved yesterday.

PUBLIC SCHOOL EXERCISES.

At No. 13 the pupils of each room held their closing exercises yesterday and a very fine programme was carried out in each case by the pupils. The parents were in attendance and enjoyed the pleasant features. Today, the weather permitting, the pupils will gather in a body at the school and, in charge of Principal Kemmerling, will proceed to the Round Woods park, where a picnic will be held.

No. 14 the several rooms spent the afternoon with some form of pleasant diversion. That of the principal, however, was more pretentious. Under the supervision of Professor James R. Hughes, principal, an elaborate programme had been prepared. The room in which the pupils and their parents gathered was prettily decorated with the national colors, green leaves and flowers. The black-boards were filled with designs and sketches by different pupils. The entertainment was very creditable.

CLOSING EXERCISES AT NO. 16.

This afternoon public school, No. 16, will close the spring term with fitting exercises. The affair is in charge of Professor Crutenden, the principal, but all the rooms of the grammar and intermediate grades will unite in the exercises. The parents upon visiting the school will be pleased to note the artistic and original designs and sketches placed upon the black boards by the scholars. Following is the programme to be rendered:

Fellows Mason, D. D. Evans and Joseph Oliver. A very fine menu has been prepared by Miss Host Fairchild, and the toasts will be of an exceptional order. President A. B. Holmes will act as toastmaster.

DUNMORE.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Home and Foreign Missionary society of the Dunmore Presbyterian church was held in the parlors of that edifice Tuesday afternoon. The meeting was an enthusiastic one and resulted in a manner which gave added interest to the future work of the society. The event was full of encouragement to those enlisted in the noble work. A handsome sum was realized in the meeting, including a generous donation from a member, Mrs. A. D. Blackington. At the conclusion of the session the members were tendered a supper by Mrs. Blackington, which included the ladies members of the congregation. A large number were present and shared in the pleasures of the occasion. It has been Mrs. Blackington's life long aim to promote the Christian and social prosperity of the church, of which her father and mother, the late Mr. and Mrs. John B. Smith, were prominent members, and closely identified with its progress along every line. In the words of a member of the society neither herself or her sister members can find language suitable to express their appreciation of Mrs. Blackington's kindness. It can be truthfully remarked that her kindness and that of the family permeate every branch of the church's work from the primary department of the Sunday school up. It is only fair to Mrs. Blackington to say that no one recognizes more keenly than herself the liberality of her associates in church work who ever stand ready to assist her in the Christian duties as well as to the church's social needs. A silver offering was taken up which resulted handsomely to the benefit of the society.

OFFICERS CHOSEN.

Robert Morris lodge of True Iovites held an interesting business session at Iovite hall last evening. The delegate to the Grand Lodge, Attorney William E. Lewis, made his report and it was received with interest. A resolution of thanks was adopted in which the appreciation of the body was conveyed to the executive committee who so successfully carried out the recent Robert Morris elated. Election of officers for the ensuing year took place and resulted as follows: President, Ely Harris; vice-president, John D. Hughes; recording secretary, Attorney D. J. Davies; conductor, David J. Davies; overseer, Joseph E. Evans; outside guard, John M. Williams; inside guard, T. J. Davis. Installation takes place next Thursday evening.

THREATENED TO KILL.

A peculiar case was heard before Alderman Daniel Moses of the Fifteenth ward, last evening. Each of the parties use the same defense and offer the same evidence. Ella Reed of Kelly's Patch, charges Cicero Williams, also of Kelly's Patch, with going into her home for the purpose of killing her with an axe which he was carrying about at the time. Cicero—pro-nounced Kick-er-oh—says that he was met on the stairs by Miss Ella, who had the axe in question and her attitude caused him to fear for his life. Cicero was much the worse for intoxication and was remanded to the station house for a further hearing this morning.

BELLEFONTE'S FIREBUG.

James Cornelius is held to bail in the sum of $6,000.

Bellefonte, Pa., June 17.—James Cornelius, who is charged with felonious arson on three accounts, was given a hearing before Judge Love today and was bound over in $6,000 bail for his appearance at the August term of court. Not being able to secure bail, he was taken back to the county jail.

The evidence produced by District Attorney Singer, was sensational and damaging to the prisoner. A. W. Gillespie, a detective, testified that he had been shadowing Cornelius, saw him go to the armory, heard the breaking of the window, saw the flash of the flames and then saw Cornelius leave the spot. He also testified that Cornelius while drunk, told him (Gillespie) that if he would stay in Bellefonte he would see a big fire.

Other witnesses also gave damaging testimony, and Judge Love took the case from the district attorney's hands and bound Cornelius over to court.

The court house was crowded during the hearing and many were unable to gain admittance.

Chairman Elkins today sent a communication to the Philadelphia members of the committee submitting that date for their approval. It met with unanimous approval.

LOOKING BACKWARD.

How the Good Old Times Leave Their Lasting Impression.

It is quite natural for elderly people to think that the times which are gone by, and which they alone remember, were more interesting and notable than the times which are passing now, says one of Harper's publications. The passage of years tends to efface from the mind the merely commonplace occurrences of every day, and leave only the salient ones so that past years are really more remarkable in our memories.

This is one reason why people speak of severe weather as "old fashioned." On the whole the weather does not vary much from one decade to another; but people remember the severe weather and forget the ordinary, so that to the mind the weather of the past is extreme weather.

But the valuation placed on old things may be excessive—as for instance, in the case of a remark made by an old gentleman to his nephew: "Twenty degrees below zero" he said, "What does that amount to? Why, I can remember a day when I was twenty degrees below zero, and when I was forty degrees below zero; and you must remember that one degree then was as good as two nowadays!"

This reminds one of the philosophy of the Irishman regarding the difference between the days in Ireland and America.

"Ah," said he, "the days is twice as long in the old country as here—and there's twice as many of them!"

Picked 'Em Up Cheap

The weather is just beginning to make it possible for the ladies to generally adopt the jaunty, airy looking shirt waists that fashion has designed for the present season, but manufacturers have got through making up for this season fully a month ago.

WE MADE AN OFFER LAST WEEK

To clean up the stock of a well-known New York firm. They didn't seem to take kindly to it at first, but finally accepted it, and on Tuesday, the first delivery came to hand. We may say that we've handled the same makers goods for three seasons consecutively, and we guarantee the garments offered at this sale to be fully equal in materials, making, styles and finish, to anything we have ever sold at any price.

We Are Not the Losers Here

The season is still young and there is no good reason why we should be. The manufacturers did loose money, however, and their loss is your gain.

5 GREAT BARGAIN LOTS

- Lot 1, 69c.
The best Shirt Waists that we have previously sold this year at $5.00, and $1.00 are fully equal in this lot. Patterns are exceptionally choice and the selection is practically unlimited.
- Lot 2, 89c.
The average value of this lot is about $1.25. A very few may be worth a shade less, but $1.25 is a fair, an over value. Nothing later but in materials or cutting, and the sale price is only 89 cents.
- Lot 3, $1.19.
If dainty making and excellence of quality count for anything in your eyes these Shirt Waists will at once win your fancy. Identically the same goods have been sold by us this season at $1.37 1/2 and $1.50. The sale price is $1.19.
- Lot 4, $1.39.

- Lot 5, $1.69.
These are high class waists in the strictest sense of the word, and represent exclusive novelty styles. We sold the same qualities last week at $2.00, $2.25 and $2.50, but of course cannot maintain the prices against the extraordinary values represented in this special purchase.
